Constitution

Section 1: To approve all scriptural teachings, methods and conduct; and to disapprove unscriptural teachings, methods and conduct.

Section 2: To encourage and promote evangelism, and missions.

Section 3: To provide a basis of fellowship among Christians of like precious faith.

Section 4: It shall have the right to exercise any of the powers of which true voluntary associations are capable, whose purpose is not the acquisition of gain, under local and provincial authority.

Section 5: To have the right to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, leases or otherwise dispose of, such property, real or chattel, as may be needed for the prosecution of its work. The General council officers shall be Custodians and Trustees of all real properties.

Section 6: It shall not acquire properties and assets for gain, but shall employ all properties and assets for the furtherance of its objectives as outlined in this Constitution.

Section 7: To establish and maintain departments and institutions as may be necessary for the propagation of the gospel, and the work of the ministry.

Section 1: The I.A.G is a body corporate constituted in terms of relevant laws applicable in the Republic of South Africa and this Constitution and shall, subject to the provisions hereof, have all such powers that vest in a body corporate having a legal personality independently from its members.

Section 2: Without derogating from the generality of Section 1 above, the I.A.G shall have the power to, inter alia: Institute, defend or be a party to legal proceedings in its own name. (a) Institute, defend or be a party to legal proceedings in its own name. (b) Acquire rights and incur obligations. (c) Enter into and enforce contracts. (d) In its own name acquire, alienate or in any way deal with movable, immovable, corporeal, incorporeal, intellectual or any other form of property or rights in property. (f) Enter into contracts of employment as an employer, and accordingly remunerate its employees. (g) Open and hold bank accounts in its name. (h) Subject to the law applicable, invest its resources or property in any manner it deems fit.

Section 3: Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the church may not utilize its income, profits, earnings, or any realization of its assets for any purpose whatsoever other than the advancement, promotion and accomplishment of its mission; and the church is specifically precluded from sharing with, ceding to or passing over to any other person, natural or legal, its income and profits howsoever earned and sourced.

Section 4: The church shall, vis-à-vis its members, have the power to approve all scriptural teachings, methods and conduct; and to disapprove unscriptural teachings, methods and conduct.

The International Assemblies of God shall strive to represent the body of Christ as described in the New Testament Scriptures, recognizing the principles inherent in that body as also inherent in this fellowship, particularly the principles of unity and co-operation. Its purpose is to maintain conditions under which it can, as a fellowship, demonstrate these principles and their consequent development.

The statement of our Fundamental Truths is based on the belief that the Bible is our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. This Statement of Fundamental Truths, contained in section 1 to section 18 below, is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e. that we all speak the same thing, 1 Corinthians 1:10; Acts 2:42). The phraseology employed in this Statement is not inspired or contended for, but the truth set forth...
Constitution

is held to be essential to a Full Gospel Ministry.◆No claim is made that it contains all Biblical truth, only that it covers our need as to these Fundamental Doctrines.

<h4>Section 1:◆The Scriptures Inspired</h4>

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God, and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

<h4>Section 2:◆The One True God</h4>

The one true God who has revealed Himself in the Three Persons of God the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

<h4>Section 3:◆God the Father</h4>

The one true God has revealed Himself as the eternal self-existent "I AM", the Creator of Heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind.◆He has further revealed Himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 43:10; Matthew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

<h4>Section 4:◆The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ</h4>

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God.◆The Scriptures declare:(a) His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31, 35).(b) His sinless life (Hebrews 7:26; 1 Peter 2:22).(c) His miracles (Acts 2:22; 10:38).(d) His substitutionary work of the Cross (1 Corinthians 5:21).(e) His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:39; 1 Corinthians 15:4).(f) His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9; 11; 2:33; Philippians2:9-11; Hebrews 1-3).

<h4>Section 5:◆The Deity of the Holy Spirit</h4>

The Scriptures declare the Divinity of the Holy Spirit (a) Co-Creator with the Father and the Son (Genesis 1:26; John 1:1; Psalms 33:6).(b) His role in the birth of Jesus (Matthew 1:18; Luke 1:35).(c) He gives life to the believers (2 Corinthians 3:7).(d) He writes God's Law in the believers' hearts (2 Corinthians 3:3).(e) He is called to continue the work of Jesus Christ (John 14:15).(f) He is the Church's Comforter and Teacher (John 14:15-17; 24-26; 15:20-27; Ephesians 4:30).

<h4>Section 6:◆The Fall of Man</h4>

Man was created good and upright; for God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness."◆However, man, by voluntary transgression, fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 3:8; 23-24; Romans 5:12-19).

<h4>Section 7:◆The Salvation of Man</h4>

Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the◆Lord Jesus Christ.◆By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the Hope of Eternal Life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3;◆Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5-7).

<h4>Section 8:◆The Sacraments of the Church</h4>

(a) Baptism in Water◆The ordinance of Baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures.◆All who repent and believe in Christ, as Saviour and Lord are to be baptized.◆Thus they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10:47; Romans 6:4).

(b) Holy Communion◆The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements - bread and the fruit of the vine - is the symbol expressing our sharing the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 1:4; a memorial of His suffering and death (1 Corinthians 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers "till He comes!")

<h4>Section 9:◆The Constitution

Baptism in the Holy Spirit

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit and Fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian Church. With it comes the enduement of power for life and service, the bestowment of the Gifts and their uses in the work of the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4, 8; 1 Corinthians 12:1-31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the New Birth (Acts 8:12-17; 10:44-46; 11:14-15; 15:7-9). With the baptism in the Holy Spirit come such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37-39; Acts 4:8), a deepened reverence for God (Acts 2:43; Hebrews 12:28), an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His word and for the Lost (Mark 16:20).

The Initial Physical Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The baptism of believers in the Holy Ghost is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (1 Corinthians 12:4-10, 28), but different in purpose and use.

The Church

The Church is the Body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfilment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and Church of the First-born, which are written in Heaven (Ephesians 1:22, 23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23).

Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God (Romans 12:1; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). The Scriptures teach a life of "Holiness without which no man shall see the Lord," (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Ghost we are able to obey the command: "Be ye holy, for I am Holy" (1 Peter 1:15,16).

Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1-11, 8:1, 2, 13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12, 13; 1 Peter 1:5).

The Ministry

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for a two-fold purpose: (1) The evangelization of the World, and (2) The edifying of the Body of Christ (Mark 16:15-20; Ephesians 4:11-13).

Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the Gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the atonement, and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4,5; Matthew 8:16, 17; James 5:14-16).

The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, is the imminent and Blessed Hope of the Church (1 Thessalonians 4:16,17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; 1 Corinthians 15:51, 52).

The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our Blessed Hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27, 30; Revelation 1:7; 19:11-14; 20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of general Israel (Ezekiel 37:21, 22; Zephaniah 3:19, 20; Romans 11:26, 27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6-9; Psalm 72:3-8; Micah 4:3, 4).

The Final Judgement

There will be a final judgement in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. "Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life," together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second
